

To learn responsibility and avoid instructional interruptions, students must bring with them in the morning all items needed for the school day including water bottles, lunches, PE towels, etc. These can no longer be accepted at the office.