Today is Wear Yellow or Clark Spirit FRIDAY - Ray of Sunshine” day: Wear your Clark spirit gear or anything yellow to support Loving, Caring, Sharing and Friendships. Again, you can change your school avatar to something that resembles a “Ray of Sunshine” or something that indicates the importance of loving, caring, sharing and friendship, this includes POWER! 85% of students make up the “silent majority” who are aware of bullying incidents but do not do anything about them.

Students can make a difference! Report the incidents of bullying that you see which adults do not see. Refuse to participate in bullying activities such as exclusion, gossip, or taunting or cyber bullying. Those who are bullied and suicide attempt have a direction correlation. It is estimated that 285,000 people each year become suicide survivors. In addition, suicide is the 12th leading cause of death in the US: in 2020, 45, 979 Americans died by suicide: in 2020, there was an estimated 1.2 million suicide attempts in the US. “We must be the change we wish to see in the world.” ~Mahatma Gandhi. Finally, if anyone sees something that is out of the norm and/or bullying/violence taking place, please say something. If you see something, say something!

Arab Americans/Middle Eastern Heritage Quote: “The World is three days: As for yesterday, it has vanished, along with all that was in it. As for tomorrow, you may never see it. As for today, it is yours, so work in it.” ~Hasan of Basra
