MIDDLE SCHOOL

Spartan eBulletin

Dear Families,

During this time, it is especially important to have connections with familiar people. We want to remind all students that we are here to support you both academically and emotionally. Parents as well may be experiencing stress as they navigate this new school model. You are now adjusting to a variety of at home learning platforms that teachers have provided for you. We realize that this is a tremendous amount of change in your daily life and that change can be difficult. Please know that your counselors are here for you to offer coping strategies, anxiety reducing exercises, and to just communicate with about any difficulties you may be having in adjusting to learning at home. If you have any questions, please email us.
