In-School Multicultural Dance Program

Overview:

This 4-week multicultural dance program will cover a specific type of dance from around the world in each lesson. Students will learn a brief history of each style of dance, and how it is unique to the country from which it originates. The instructor will teach students the basic steps, and they will practice and then perform at the end of the class.

Instructor:

Stephanie Evans--- Professional dancer and instructor

Stephanie earned her B.A. at UC Davis, where she earned a major in Performing Arts and a minor in Education. She currently is a dancer at Universal Studios Hollywood, and has performed as a soloist for the Fresno Ballet Company, in Glendale Centre Theater productions, and in various films and TV spots. In addition to being a dance instructor for various age groups, she has also worked as a nanny, an enrichment teacher, a children's party performer, and is currently directing and choreographing a production of "Mary Poppins" for children. She also teaches in our after-school drama program.

Schedule:

4 separate sessions, each consisting of four weekly 30-minute workshops, available to approximately 24 Kinder—6th-grade classrooms. Classes are held in the Dads' Club during school hours.

Enrollment / Estimated Costs:

- Potentially serving 24 VW classrooms with no family supplemental contribution required.
- Costs include instructor and any necessary materials.

Suggested WAVE contribution: $4,000
