California School Board Association Awards GUSD with 2015 Golden Bell Awards

GLENDALE, CA - The California School Boards Association (CSBA) honors the Glendale Unified School District with two Golden Bell Awards. The awards are given to promote excellence in education and school board governance by recognizing outstanding programs that address the changing needs of students. The Golden Bell Awards, now in their 36th year highlight best practices in education in the areas of operations, instruction and support services.

Franklin Elementary Schools International Foreign Language Academy of Glendale has been awarded the honor of being a 2015 Golden Bell winner in the category of Curriculum and Instruction. This category recognizes models that utilize interdisciplinary teaching, thematic instruction, learning styles, and technology along with other innovative or exemplary instruction strategies that will enable students to achieve the Common Core State Standards.

Clark Magnet High School also received the honor of being a 2015 Golden Bell winner in the category of Technology for STEAM Power – Inspiring Student Achievement in Science, Engineering & the Digital Arts through Technology & Project-Based Learning. This category recognizes the use of technology as an instructional tool engaging students in the curriculum and helping to equip them for our technological society and job market by providing greater access to educational services.

On December 5, 2015 at the San Diego Marriott Marquis, Marina Ballroom all the 2015 Golden Bell winners will be announced and recognized by the California School Board Association.
