NEWS ADVISORY

GUSD Seeking Community Members for Superintendent's Facility Advisory Committee (SFAC)

Glendale, CA – Glendale Unified School District is currently soliciting applications to fill 5 (five) open seats on the Superintendent's Facility Advisory Committee (SFAC). A maximum of nine (9) community members may be appointed by the Superintendent or designee to serve on the Committee. It is a two-year commitment, with the possibility of a renewal at the end of the two years. The Committee meets twice a month on Mondays.

The SFAC is an advisory Committee on matters related to the implementation of Measure S and other Facilities projects. The purpose of the Committee is to make recommendations to the Superintendent and Board of Education to ensure Measure S Funds are utilized in a cost effective manner to provide facilities, technologies, and equipment that support the educational program as outlined in the provisions of Measure S and the District's Strategic Plan.

Applications are now available on the GUSD website at www.GUSD.net.
Deadline for submitting applications is July 12, 2016.
